

NAMED THEIR TICKET

COLONEL ROOSEVELT AND GOV. JOHNSON TO LEAD PROGRESSIVE PARTY.

WERE NOTIFIED AND ACCEPTED

Both Candidates Pledged Themselves to Stand Squarely on the Platform as Adopted by the Convention.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Singing "Onward, Christian Soldier," and the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the delegates to the first national convention of the

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The Progressive Party's First Candidate for President.

Progressive party proclaimed Theodore Roosevelt of New York as their candidate for president and Gov. Hiram W. Johnson of California as their choice for vice-president.

Marking a new departure in the proceedings of national conventions, the two candidates immediately were informally notified of their nomination, and in the midst of deafening cheers appeared before the delegates to voice their acceptance and to pledge their best efforts to the coming campaign.

The party formally christened itself "The Progressive Party," leaving out the prefix "national," by which it has heretofore been known, but provision was made for the recognition of "real" Progressives in any of the states by whatever name they should be locally designated because of state laws.

Debated Over Recess.

As has always been the case in national political conventions, the bulk of the work of the Progressive gathering was carried on in the committee. The only semblance of a conflict of opinion on the floor was a brief debate as to whether an hour's recess should be taken. The point was not material, but as one delegate expressed it, "we just had to fight about something to make it a regular convention."

There was sharp discussion, however, in several of the committee meetings and no little difficulty in agreeing upon the platform as finally adopted. Col. Roosevelt worked with the subcommittee in charge of the platform until late in the afternoon, going over their work of the two previous days and nights, and vigorously helping to mold the craft which at last proved acceptable to him.

No Negro Plank.

The platform did not take up the negro question. In that connection one of the interesting seconding speeches of the day was that of F. R. Glead of New York, a negro. Glead declared that the negroes had faith in the new party; faith that it would do all in its power to right the wrongs of the race.

"We stand by the platform," he said. "We stand by Col. Roosevelt's letter; we stand by his speech. And as we stood by him at San Juan Hill, so we will stand by you in November and fight for victory."

Gov. Johnson's Acceptance.

There was a prolonged demonstration as Col. Roosevelt concluded his brief speech accepting the nomination. It was renewed when Gov. Johnson was introduced. He said:

"It is with the utmost solemnity, the deepest obligation, that I come to tell you that I have enlisted for the war."

"Enlisting as I have in that contest for humanity that desired government, ally to make men better rather than to make men richer, there is no question of course but that of necessity I must accept any place where I may be drafted, and that I accept such a place as you have accorded me in the nation's history today (because again you are making history in this land); that I accept it with grateful heart and with the utmost singleness of purpose, to carry out as well as I may the little that may be my part to do."

Platform is Presented.

When the seconding speeches ended Chairman Beveridge recognized William Draper Lewis, chairman of the resolution committee, to present the platform. A round of applause greeted the reading of the direct primary, initiative, referendum and recall planks. The woman suffrage plank was roundly cheered. The recall of judicial decisions plank received a scattered cheer. Jury trials in contempt of court cases and a restriction of the use of the injunction in labor disputes recommended in the platform were received by the convention with enthusiasm.

The prohibition of child labor and the fixing of a minimum wage scale for women, which formed another plank, were given a hand.

Lewis finished reading the platform at 5:35 o'clock and a demonstration began. But Senator Beveridge cut it short and the platform was adopted without a dissenting voice.

Then Beveridge, stepping to the front of the platform, announced the adjournment of the convention "without day."

"And thus ends," he said, "one of the three most notable occasions in the country's history."

A cheer followed and then the crowd broke for the exits. In a few moments an empty convention hall, littered with torn paper, with state standards leaping at curious angles, marked the end of the first national convention of the Progressive party.

THE PLATFORM SUMMARIZED

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Preamble: "The conscience of the people, in a time of grave national problems, has called into being a new party, born of the Nation's awakened sense of justice."

"We of the Progressive party dedicate ourselves to the fulfillment of the duty laid upon us by our fathers to maintain that government of the people, by the people and for the people whose foundations they laid."

"We hold with Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln that the people are the masters of their constitution, to fulfill its purpose and to safeguard it from those who, by perversion of its intent, would convert it into an instrument of injustice."

"This country belongs to the people who inhabit it. It is time to set the public welfare in the first place."

The platform further declares: That "the old parties have become the tools of corrupt interests, which use them impartially to serve their selfish purposes," and that the "new party offers itself as the instrument of the people to sweep away old abuses, to build a new and nobler commonwealth."

It declares under heading, "The Rule of the People," for direct primaries for the nomination of state and national officers and candidates for the presidency; for the popular election of Demand that the Panama Canal shall be so operated as to insure sea competition with trans-continental railroads, and urge that American railroad controlled ships be denied the use of the canal.

Expresses belief in a protective tariff which shall equalize conditions of competition between the United States and foreign countries for all classes; demands tariff revision because the present tariff is unjust to the people of the United States, and pledges party to the establishment of a nonpartisan scientific tariff revision.

Condemns Payne-Aldrich Bill and the Democratic party's tariff policy as "destructive of the protective system."

Demands immediate repeal of the Canadian Reciprocity Act.

Favors inheritance and income taxes, limitation of naval forces and the construction of two battle ships a year pending such agreement.

Favors governmental action in behalf of immigrants; a wise and just policy of pensions for old soldiers and sailors and the immediate creation of a pension post.

In conclusion the platform "appeals for the support of all American citizens without regard to previous political affiliations."

Ivy poison quickly healed by Resinol

Ivy or oak poison, sunburn, heat rashes, insect bites, and other annoying hot weather skin-troubles are instantly relieved and quickly healed by Resinol Ointment and warm baths with Resinol Soap.

Mr. Edgar A. Norris, of Unionville, Md., writes, May 9, 1915: "Every summer I get ivy-poison. I have suffered awfully, cannot sleep and almost go wild with itching and pain. The worst places get perfectly raw. I have tried dozens of remedies that had no effect. Last summer I had a severe case, and tried Resinol Ointment. I found it the very thing. It not only is soothing and stops that awful itching, but it heals rapidly. I was soon rid of the trouble."

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

In this age of research and experiment, all nature is ransacked by the scientific for the comfort and happiness of man. Science has indeed made giant strides in the past century, and among these—by no means least important—discoveries in medicine is that of Therapion, which has been used with great success in French Hospitals and that it is worthy the attention of those who suffer from kidney, bladder, nervous diseases, chronic weaknesses, rashes, skin eruptions, piles, etc., there is no doubt. In fact it seems evident from the big stir created amongst specialists, that THERAPION is destined to cast into oblivion all those questionable remedies that were formerly the sole reliance of medical men. It is of course impossible to tell sufferers all we should like to tell them in this short article, but those who would like to know more about this remedy that has effected so many—we might almost say, miraculous cures, should send addressed envelope for FREE book to Dr. Le Clerc Med. Co., Haverstock Road, Hampstead, London, Eng., and decide for themselves whether the New French Remedy "THERAPION" No. 1, No. 2 or No. 3 is what they require and have been seeking in vain during a life of misery, suffering, ill health and unhappiness. Therapion is sold by druggists or mail $1.00. Fougere Co., 30 Beekman St., New York.
